

One of a kind jewelry that captures the magic of color

FireArte is handmade in the USA. Our special glass appears to be a mosaic of colors when seen from different angles in varying degrees of illumination. Firing brings beauty, sparkle, and glow to each design. FireArte is hand polished and finished to the highest quality standards. Only the finest pieces are delivered to our retailers. FireArte Jewelry is designed by our artists, and high fired in a kiln. Pieces are inspected and finished by hand.

Every piece is totally unique, individual, truly one of a kind, and cannot be duplicated.

Included are 18" silver-plated chains, bails, and velvet packaging.

FireArte jewelry shows best under spots, in brightly lighted cases or direct sunlight.

- Encourage your customers to try on FireArte pieces. The incredible color spectrum will amaze them.

FireArte Jewelry can be dressed up or down by wearing with ribbons, cords, or different chains your customer may already have.

Pricing is based on size, time, and material. This is not a mass produced product, but rather art to be worn and admired for it's unique beauty and design.
